

Northern Rocky Mountain Science Center

Weekly Highlights

September 2009

I. Departmental/Bureau News

- Upcoming

USGS scientist Clint Muhlfeld will present the talk, "Conservation of Aquatic Biodiversity in the Crown of the Continent Ecosystem" at Flathead Valley Community College on September 29th. (Clint Muhlfeld, West Glacier, MT, 406-888-7926) www.fvcc.edu/news-events/press-releases/2009/september/local-research-aquatic-ecologist-to-present-next-crown-of-the-continent-lecture

- Current.

Two scientists from the United Nations will visit Glacier National Park and Canada to see the potential impacts of coal mining in the Canadian Flathead the week of September 21st. During the tour, USGS scientist Clint Muhlfeld will give a presentation on the potential impact to fisheries of the Flathead drainage. (Clint Muhlfeld, West Glacier, MT, 406-888-7926)

II. Agency Work on Presidential Initiatives

III. Notable Congressional Activity

IV. Press/Media Inquiries

- Newspapers/magazines/wires, etc.

USGS scientist Stephen Corn was interviewed by Jessika Walsten of the Annenberg Digital News on September 10th about his work with boreal toads and fire. The date of the article is unknown.

- Broadcasts and Film

- Upcoming News Releases

- Other (forum meeting, press conference, media training, etc.

V. Key FOIA Requests